

MOKENA FIGHTS PASSAGE $34,000 SEWER PROJECT

Mokena's proposed $34,000 sewer project is encountering bitter opposition from many quarters of the village and at the hearing held in the village hall last Friday night, a large number of property owners were present and were not slow in voicing their objections to the project. The objecting property owners had engaged Attorney A. H. Krusemark to represent them.

In his address to the Local Board of Improvements, attorney Krusemark declared that the property values of Mokena did not warrant an outlay of $34,609 which would prove a hardship on many property owners. He advocated that the Board of Local Improvements hold the matter in abeyance until more people settle in the village and the property values increase. He further pointed out that no consent had been obtained by the board from Mrs. Mary Marti to run the sewerage thru her farm.

Attorney Krusemark took a copy of the resolution passed by the board on June 20th creating the proposed sewer system and showed wherein it was weak and if built would not function if court action were brought against it, for the reason that the resolution provides that all existing catch basins, house and cellar drains can be connected to the proposed sewer system as well as any such drains as may be built in the future. This, attorney Krusemark pointed out, would mean that raw sewerage would be dumped into a ditch that goes dry in hot weather and this would create a stench and would then become a public nuisance and could be abated by a court order. He cited a number of similar cases which have been tried in Illinois courts wherein the judges have ruled that if the quality of water of any stream is affected by sewerage being run into it, then the sewerage must be stopped from going into the stream.

Simon Hohenstein, one of the objectors said he was not sent a written notice of the hearing although he has property on Front street which would be affected by the proposed special assessment. He also claimed he could not find out from anyone what was going on. He also demanded to know how the sewer proposition had got started, whether thru individuals or whether the board had started the matter on its own initiative, but no direct explanation of the matter was given.

Paul Rinke, Jr., and George Koller showed where they would not be benefited by the proposed sewer system and the village engineer advised that if any property owner can prove no benefit he will not be obliged to pay any special assessments. Attorney Krusemark pointed out that if many property owners proved no benefits it would mean the burden of the cost would fall on a few and would prove prohibitive. He warned the board if the sewer project is carried out, the objecting property owners will file legal objections in county court.

Attorney Krusemark pointed out that in order to make a sewer system function legally a disposal plant is required but this with the cost of the sewer system would make the project too burdensome for Mokena at the present time.

The board, the engineer and the village attorney made no comments on the objections raised and the public hearing was adjourned until Thursday evening, July 18th at the village hall at 7:30 p. m.

A special meeting of the Local Board of Improvements will be held at the village hall Friday evening of this week.

Those in favor of the sewer system say the only way to get people to locate in Mokena is to make improvements first. The opponents say it takes more than a sewer system to get new people to locate here. It is pointed out that transportation is the upbuilder of communities and that improvements follow in the wake of it.

Dr. C. E. Folkers At Military Camp

Dr. Clarence E. Folkers, dentist, with offices in the Lyric Theatre Building, Blue Island left last Saturday morning to spend two weeks in training at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Dr. Folkers is commissioned a First Lieutenant in the Dental Corps of the Army of the United States. This is the fourth government military camp that he has attended. He was graduated from Western Military Academy in 1920 and has been interested in military affairs considerably since that date.

Tinley Lions Club Officers Installed

The recently elected officers of the Tinley Park Lions Club were installed Monday night. Millard Rauhoff and Dr. Tracy of the Blue Island Lions Club were the installing officers. Paul Rauhoff was officially installed as the new president of the Tinley Park Lions Club succeeding Henry C. Vogt, the first president of the club.

Following the installation lunch and refreshments were served.

TINLEY GIVEN CLEAN BILL BY STATES ATTY.

Chief of Police George Smith of Tinley Park and Police Magistrate Clyde Rice have been given a clean bill by the Cook County States' Attorney's office and all the arrests that have been made and fines that have been assessed for speeding, have been done in a legal manner and have the approval of the office of the States' Attorney.

Assistant States' Attorney Miller brought out the arrest slip book of Chief Smith and other records which had been taken to the office of the States' Attorney for investigation, the past week. Chief Smith heads the list of country town police officers in Cook County for efficient and courteous service and for performing his duty in a legal manner.

Two disgruntled motorists who had been arrested by Chief Smith are said to have been responsible for the rap given Tinley Park and officer Smith and magistrate Rice in the Chicago papers recently. The whole story was a frameup from start to finish and Tinley Park and its officers have been vindicated by the clean bill given them by the office of the States' Attorney.

Mrs. A. Braun Is Elected Head of Mokena Club

A move in the right direction along civic lines took place, Monday afternoon when the Mokena Garden club was organized at a meeting held in the village park. Quite a number of women interested in gardening were present. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Albert Braun; Vice-president, Mrs. F. A. Tooley; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Hall.

Orland Special Licenses Changed

The special license ordinances of Orland Park have been under fire by the local business men as being unfair. Under the old ordinances cigar, cigarette and tobacco licenses were ten dollars whether all three were sold or not. The new ordinances have cut down the rate to $3 for each article sold or on sale by the local dealers. All meat dealers under the old ruling had to pay a special license of $25 per year regardless of whether they handled only smoked meats and sausages or a full line of meats. This ordinance has been amended so that those dealers who only handle smoked meats are only taxed $15 per year.

Local business men are criticizing the village board for one thing, that being that outside peddlers are allowed to peddle their wares in the village without a license.

Orland Justice Gets 3000 Tax Collection Cases

Justice of the Peace, Henry Waje, has been awarded a fat political plumb by States' Attorney Swanson of Cook County in recognition of his work for the interest of Mr. Swanson during the election campaign last fall. The States' Attorney has given Justice Waje 3000 cases of delinquent personal property tax cases to collect in 8 townships extending from Lemont to the Indiana line. Two constables, Adolph Zerbs and Carl Quigley are kept busy serving summonses on the delinquent tax payers and often as many as fifty cases come up before Justice Waje in his office in the Zerbs Building. This brings many people to Orland Park who never were here before. Justice Waje aims to handle all cases in a courteous manner, so that the people will always have a good opinion of him as well as of Orland Park.

Orland Ball Team Plays Tight Game

Orland Park has a crack ball team that is bringing home the bacon this season. Last Sunday they played a fast South Chicago team, defeating them with a score of 4 to 3. On the 4th of July they played the Gibbons Boosters from Chicago, but luck was against them resulting in a shut out game with a score of 4 to 0. A return game with Blue Island is now being planned.

TINLEY TRIANGLE TALKIES

Hullo! Everybody. Back again to tell you the happenings of a great little club.

In the line of sports we have 3 defeats chalked up against the Triangles. The first of these was on June 30, when the Blue Island Friscos and Triangles were both decisively defeated by "Rain". This game will be played later on in the season. Watch for it.

The second of these defeats happened on the Fourth of July when the Ace of Clubs of Blue Island trimmed the Triangles by score of 13 to 4.

And on Sunday July 7 the Tinley Triangles journeyed to Midlothian to get shut out by the Aces 8 to 0. This game was lost because of erratic playing by the Triangles. The Aces did not earn a run. It should have been a pitchers duel because both pitchers allowed few hits. Enough said!

On Monday, July 1st the regular meeting was held at the Club House. The members of the Club are working hard to put over a glorious event.

August 3rd is the date! You've guessed it. It's the Big Collegiate Dance sponsored by the Triangle Club. Come on folks, give these young people a hand and come over to the newly decorated Saenger hall on August 3rd.

Tickets are being sold for the dance. Ask any member and he or she will gladly sell you some.

All ve members of the Triangle Club. Remember the regular meeting on Monday July 15, next Monday. Everyone please be present as it is very important.

All you young folks who wish to join the Club, come on over on July 15. Must have ambition and loads of pep.

The Triangles play Chicago Hgths this Sunday at Tinley Park. Everybody out and help this newly pepped up team win.

See you next week.

Hold Big Barn Raise

A big barn raising was held on the Wm. Schellhase farm near Tinley Park Wednesday afternoon. In the evening an old time barn dance was held which was attended by a big crowd. Mr. Schultz furnished the music with his concertina.

MOKENA MAY ORGANIZE NEW CIVIC CLUB

Sensing the need of some kind of a civic organization, a number of Mokena business men and their friends held a meeting on Monday evening at the old school house for purpose of talking things over and see what plans can be formulated for a local civic organization.

Among those present were: Ona E. McGovney, Richard Hensel, N. F. Heiman, Herman Schweser, Albert Braun, Paul Roesner, Otto Bartels, August Brown, Henry Scheik, Lester Schtek, Elmer Sippel and others.

It was agreed that Mokena needs something to engender and promote civic interest as the Lions Club is doing in Tinley Park. The promotion of a neighborly and friendly spirit was one of the under lying principles considered.

It is understood that another meeting is scheduled for next Monday night at the old school house to take the matter up further and see what can be done toward perfecting organization plans.

It is said that the village engineer is to be present next Monday night and explain the proposed sewer system.

PUBLIC MEETING

A call has been made for a meeting of citizens of precinct No. 2 to be held at the old school house, Mokena, Ill., at 7 p. m. Monday night, July 15, 1929 to consider the advisability of forming an organization to promote matters of public welfare of the village and of the precinct.

Sometime will be given to the consideration of the sewer problem. Everyone is invited.

Tinley Garden Club Notes

BY
Mrs. John Swisher
Let us make a garden,
You and I:
Hollyhocks and larkspur,
Stately, high,
Tulips and wallflowers,
Velvet brown,
One tall lily
In a white gown.
Placid pansies,
Daisies shy,
Marigolds that
Face the sky.
God walks in their gardens,
Other men say,
Let us make a garden,
Perhaps He may!

The Tinley Park Garden Club enjoyed a rare treat last Monday evening when they were entertained by Mrs. Leanora Nelson of Blue Island.

Mrs. Nelson's attractive garden had been converted into a small amphitheater for the evening where her guests gathered around the pool located in the center of the garden. There was lovely music, and old fashioned songs; songs that recalled to many, memories of the past. Iced punch and French pastery was served by the hostess. The Tinley Park Garden Club wishes to thank Mrs. Nelson for this delightful evening.

FLOAT TAKES FIRST PRIZE IN PARADE

What could have been more beautiful than the artistic float exhibited in the Lion's parade, by the Tinley Park Garden Club, July 4th? All who enjoyed seeing this lovely creation were profuse in their praise for those who were responsible for this work of art. The Com-

TINLEY M. E. PASTOR GOING BACK TO DIXIE

Rev. J. L. Cheney, pastor of the M. E. church at Tinley Park is going to return to the Southland this fall and take up a charge there.

Rev. Mr. Cheney has issued the following open letter to his congregation at Tinley Park:

Our second quarterly conference is to be held July 18th, and we are very anxious to make a favorable impression at this meeting.

So far this year, as you know, we have not made any appeal for money but felt sure that you will be very eager to help us make the present Conference year the success you would like it to be, from the standpoint of finance as well as it has been along of activity other times.

You will recall, that last year, we did not give this matter our attention until a few weeks before the close of the Conference year, however, is becomes necessary to take care of our benevolences now, as there will be a new pastor on the field after the middle of September.

It would be rather difficult for a new man to assume that responsibility during the last two or three weeks of the conference year, as you know.

You have been unusually loyal in your church work and have operated in every possible way in making the program of the church a success since we have been your pastor, and your fine spirit of devotion and sacrifice in the work of the Kingdom of Christ has contributed toward making our pastorate among you the most pleasant it has been our good fortune to enjoy. We desire to thank you for your very fine service to your Church and wish for you many happy years of usefulness in the Kingdom of Christ.

We have set apart, next Sunday, July 14th, as "Home Coming Day," and hope that we may have a hundred per cent attendance on the part of the membership and friends of the Church.

In the 11 a. m. service we desire to make our annual offering for the Church budget on benevolences and hope that all our people and friends may share in that contribution.

In order to add interest to the services of the day we have arranged for the Spoorster quartette to be with us on next Sunday. This quartette is composed of four sisters who frequently sing over the Radio and are in big demand thruout the City of Chicago.

Come! Do not miss next Sunday.
J. L. CHENEY, pastor

"GOB" PAJAMAS FOR THE BEACH; SUIT YOURSELF ABOUT BRIMS

IN CREATING the now-so-chic pajama modes for beach, boudoir and resort wear, genius and imagination are co-starring in a spectacular role. Almost amusing in their eccentricities yet ever charming are many of the pajama costumes staged on fashion's program.

The feminized version of a sailor lad's suit as here pictured is typical of the manner in which pajama stylists are at present playing up "ideas." For summer and beach wear "gob" pajamas as shown here are the very latest. The cute frilly feminine blouse provokes a smile, being as it is so delightfully feminine. It is made as important a midsummer item as the very widest of brims.

Or is it that fashion's followers having found out that cunning little toques and caps and otherwise close-fitting types look just as charming in summertime as they do in winter and springtime are continuing their vogue from choice? At any rate, with the slogan in mind that "the customer is always right," fashionists are catering to the demand of fashionables by letting "us women" have our way in regard to hats being brimmed or brimless.

In consequence some of us are topping our frocks this summer with cun-

of white flat crepe. The trousers are of lighter-than-navy rayon faille.

No less unique are the clever overall pajamas which are making a decided hit with novelty seekers. For these ordinary workaday overalls have proved the styling inspiration. However, instead of the customary blue jeans fashionists employ all sorts of pretty materials, such as, for instance, blue and white striped broadcloth for the overall trousers and bib with its suspenders which cross at the back. With this a sleeveless tuck-in blouse of plain blue broadcloth is worn.

Another pajama outfit which has a sea-going air about it, is made of white cotton gabardine. The front opening of the blouse and the hip yoke of the pajamas are eyelet-laced. A true-to-type gob hat tops this costume.

Tuck-in blouses have become of increasing importance now that belted pajamas are the mode. An interesting item in connection with the new ling little flower toques or with the "Frenchy" little draped turbans either of tricot scarfing or crochet vises if not deftly molded-to-the-head, soft-as-felt exotic straws.

Others in vanity fair are indulging in brims as wide as wide can be, many of which are airily transparent, others preferring the new and very smart linenlike straws. Still others are "keeping in the middle of the road," wearing brims not too narrow or not too wide, which are individualized by all sorts of novel manipulation.

The modes pictured are a fifty-fifty proposition—three being wide of brim, three defining the brimless mode. A big-brim all-black hat, like the one shown first in the group, is a likeable possession—always "sets off" a summery sheer dress to perfection. Looks well, too, with semi-tailors and smart pique or gingham frocks. This one is a large hair-shape embroidered with black chenille.

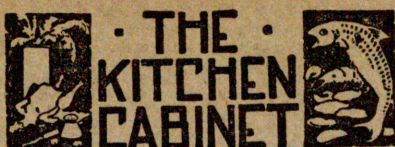

An applique of cutout felt cherries and foliage in realistic colors enhances the natural colored straw to the right.

The charming thing about the huge brim in the center is that it is lined with tinted allover lace of thinnest cobweb mesh.

One of the fashionable bakou straws is shown to the left in the row of little hats. It is in that new and popular shade—chartreuse. The monture of grapes are in chartreuse and black. The still-so-popular tricot-straw-draped toque is represented by the model in the tiny oval. Last but not least is a flower toque or cap. These are lovely with summer chif fons.

GOOD THINGS

Who doesn't like waffles? Here is a recipe which is unusual and altogether delicious:

Caribbean Waffles.—Mix and sift two and one-half cups of flour with a teaspoonful of salt, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Add two egg yolks, one and one-half to one and one-third cups of milk and two cups of banana pulp. Mix well, fold in the egg whites beaten stiff, and six tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Bake on a waffle iron a trifle longer than usual. Serve with honey, or lemon butter prepared as follows: Cream four tablespoonfuls of butter with four tablespoonfuls of sugar, add lemon juice and grated lemon rind. Serve in balls.

Imperial Salad.—Take one package of lemon gelatin, dissolve in one cupful of boiling water, add one cupful of pineapple juice, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, three slices of pineapple cut into bits, one-half a can of pimientos shredded, one medium cucumber cut fine. Turn into molds, chill until firm. Serve with a cream salad dressing.

New York Salad.—Take four slices of pineapple, one-half cupful of celery, one-half cupful of nuts, two oranges. Arrange the slices of pineapple on nests of lettuce. Cut the celery into one and one-half inch pieces and mix with the nuts. Pile in the center of the pineapple and garnish with four sections of orange free from membrane, laid symmetrically on the pineapple. Serve with dressing.

Brown Rice Pop-Overs.—Scald a pint of sweet milk and stir it into one cupful of boiled unpolished rice, add one-half cupful of flour, three beaten egg yolks, one tablespoonful of butter and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Fold in the egg whites and bake in a hot oven twenty minutes.

Cardinal Gelatin Salad.—Take a package of lemon gelatin, add one and one-half cups of boiling water; when dissolved add one-half cupful of beet juice from the can, one cupful of shredded celery, one cupful of diced beets, one-half cupful of Spanish onions cut fine, one green pepper, shredded, and one teaspoonful of salt. Mix as usual, mold, turn out on lettuce and serve with mayonnaise. This will serve eight.

Tuna Au Gratin.—Take one large can of tuna fish, one small can of peas, three cooked and sliced potatoes, one-fourth pound of good strong cheese, two cups of white sauce. Melt the cheese in the white sauce, add the sliced potatoes, tuna fish and peas. Bake in a moderate oven forty minutes.

Camp Cooking.

Every year there are more and more campers who pack their autos and spin away for a week-end in camp or some favorite resort where the cooking may be done out-of-doors and eaten with a real appetite.

The Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts are being educated into all the fine points of camp life.

They are taught to cook many kinds of food (which the old camper fried) on the end of a green stick over a fire.

Bread may be toasted, sliced bacon, sausage, an apple, or an ear of corn, all cooked by means of a sharpened green stick and a good fire.

The kabob or skewered food may make quite a variety. Arrange sliced potatoes, alternating with individual strips of steak; if carefully watched this dish may be all cooked at once.

As cheese melts in heat and becomes tough if cooked at a high temperature, wrap pieces in bacon and string on a green stick. Thrust the slender point of the stick through the bacon, which will keep it from unwrapping. By the time the bacon is done the cheese will be melted. This is called a cheesebob by the Camp Fire Girls, and is worth remembering as "so good."

Did you ever try:

Squaw Dish.—Take plenty of butter in a frying pan, or use bacon or bacon fat if no butter is available, add fresh corn cut from the cob (one green pepper to a quart of corn) season with salt and pepper, chop the green pepper, and stir and cook until brown. Serve on toast or crackers.

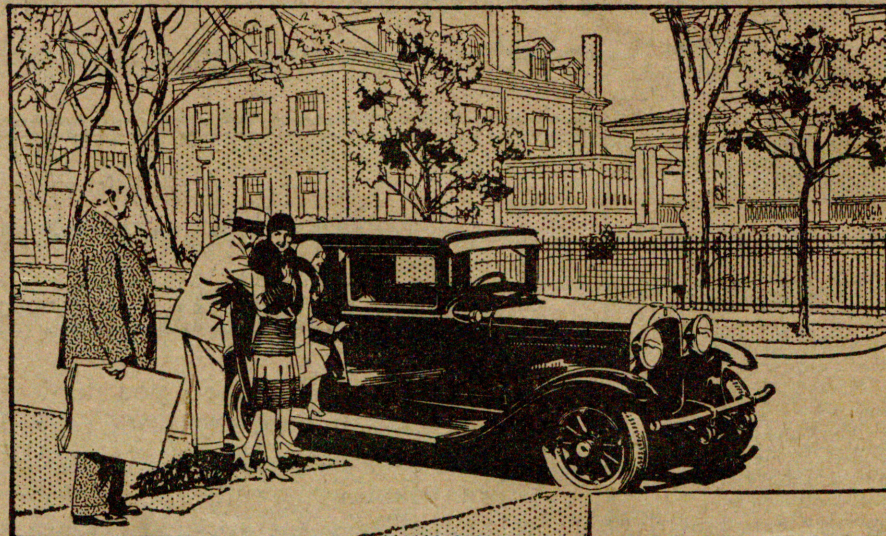

Grilled Cheese Sandwiches.—Spread bread with butter and place a thin slice of cheese between two slices. Either toast or saute in a little bacon fat over the fire in a frying pan.

Scout Rice.—Put one cupful of rice into three cups of boiling water in a double boiler, add three tablespoonfuls of bacon fat and cook until the rice is nearly tender. Then add two cups of canned tomatoes and one-fourth pound of cheese cut very fine. Cook until the cheese is melted.

The Marley Dramatic Club will present their home talent play entitled "The Dust of the Earth" at the Marley church Friday evening of this week, July 12 at 8 o'clock. Rev. A. R. Wakeland is directing the play. The cast of characters is as follows:

Ancient Currency

"Ring money," was used by the Egyptians. The rings of precious metals were circular but a slight gap was left, that the rings could be formed into a chain. This substitute for money found its way to western Europe and the British isles.

NEWLY DESIGNED RAYON CREATIONS

Every woman, regardless of her age, her station in life or her income, has the desire to be called well-dressed. That is as it should be. The male sex may not admit it, but they also take pride in knowing that their women folks are looked upon as among those who know how to wear clothes. Five stunning creations are shown in this photograph. The creation in the upper left is from "London Trades"—that young house so famous for its sport clothes, makes this original French frock in rayon and wool jersey, worn by Dorothy Smart. All the lines converge up and toward the front. The top right—A new shade sponsored by Patou—in a bouffant lace frock of rayon worn by Miss Peggy Fish. One side is ruffles, the other side flounces. The bottom right—One of those expressive simple frocks by Molyneux developed in a domestic rayon fabric—a two-piece model by Molyneux in rayon crepe moire—all in rose beige. The bottom left—Lavin designed the rose and blue rayon taffeta frock worn by Miss Gwen Lee, charming Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player. An adjustable peplum can either be worn around the neck in capelet effect or form the peplum. The bodice shows the lingerie strap neckline and is snug fitting. The extremely circular skirt shows an uneven hemline. The insert—Anita Page, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player, poses in an original model frock by Callot. Satin lunasol robe de style is used with pink lunasol petals edged with blue rayon and metal lace is seen between the rows of petals. (Herbert Photos).

How Do You Choose Your Lunch?
By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON
Director, Home Economics Dept.,
H. J. Heinz Company

Whether the noon-day meal is eaten at home or in a cafeteria or restaurant, outside the home, it is an important meal and should be carefully chosen. Lunches which do not contain the proper foods, eaten day after day, may seriously affect health.

A large city high school, in conducting a "Better Lunch" campaign for its students, suggests the following simple chart as a guide for choosing a well balanced lunch. This plan may be followed in selecting a lunch away from home or in preparing the luncheon in the home.

As a basis, choose one or more of these:
A hot cream soup
A vegetable
A meat substitute, such as a bean, or egg or cheese dish
A substantial salad
Add bread and butter, a beverage and a simple dessert such as fruit or custard pudding.

The following are recipes for substantial and appetizing dishes which may be used in planning lunches according to the above luncheon plan.

Luncheon Salad—Heat one medium can of tomato soup to boiling point, add one tablespoon plain gelatin soaked in ¼ cup cold water. Add two packages Philadelphia Cream Cheese and 1 cup mayonnaise dressing. Cool and add ½ cup chopped celery, ¼ cup chopped olives, and 1 green pepper chopped. Mold in large mold or in individual molds and serve on nest of lettuce garnished with a spoonful of mayonnaise dressing and a sliced olive.

Peas and Eggs
PEAS are appetizing. Eggs are rich. Peas and eggs together are rich and appetizing. Have you ever tried this combination? Here are some recipes for it which will doubtless suggest more to you. In the meantime, try:

Pea Timbales: Drain one No. 2 can of peas and press through a sieve. To the pea pulp add two slightly-beaten eggs, one-eighth cup butter, one teaspoon salt, a few grains of pepper, a dash of onion juice and one-half cup milk. Turn into well-greased molds and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in a very slow oven, like a custard, or until firm so that a silver knife comes out clean. The temperature should be 300° Fahrenheit, and the time from forty to fifty minutes. If cooked too long or in too hot an oven they will whey. Unmold on a hot plate, and serve with a white sauce (about six cups) with drained whole peas. This recipe will make four ordinary sized custard cups full.

A Delicious Omelet
Curried Pea Omelet: Make an omelet, as usual, with three eggs, three tablespoons milk, and one-half teaspoon salt. Combine one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon flour, three-eighths teaspoon curry powder and three-fourths cup milk into a white sauce in the usual way. Add three-fourths cup canned peas to the sauce, and pour hot over the omelet just before folding it over onto the platter. This will serve four. In doubling the quantity for eight persons it is better to make two omelets rather than one large one.*

Omelet with Tomato Sauce—4 eggs; 4 tablespoons hot water; salt and pepper; butter or butter substitute. Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat yolks until thick and lemon colored, beat into them hot water and add salt and pepper. Cut and fold together yolks and stiffly beaten whites. Melt enough butter in a skillet to grease the bottom and sides of pan. Turn the egg mixture into pan and cook over slow fire until fluffy and light brown underneath, then place in oven until top is dry. Touch top of omelet lightly with the finger and if egg does not stick to the finger the omelet is done. Do not overcook or it will shrink or be tough. Loosen edges of omelet, slip a spatula or flexible knife under the side next to the handle of the pan, fold one half over the other and press slightly to make it stay in place, slip onto a hot plate and serve at once with tomato sauce.

Tomato Sauce—Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan, add 2 tablespoons flour and stir until well blended. Add ½ teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper, onion juice and 1 cup milk. Stir until thick, add ¼ cup Tomato Ketchup and pour over omelet after folding.

Scalloped Eggs in Cream Sauce
4 hard-boiled eggs; 2 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons flour; ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce; 1 cup milk; 2 tablespoons Tomato Ketchup; ¼ cup buttered crumbs.
Slice hard cooked eggs, place in a buttered baking dish. Melt butter in a saucepan, add flour, stir until well blended, add salt, Worcestershire Sauce and milk. Cook until thick. Add ketchup and pour sauce over eggs. Cover with buttered crumbs and brown in oven.

Drain sauce from beans, chop them, add crumbs, onion, cheese, salt to taste, and enough milk to moisten. Form into small cakes or rolls, place in buttered baking dish in moderate oven for 30 minutes. Baste several times while baking with one cup boiling water to which has been added ¼

Mock Chicken a la King—Melt 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan and fry in it for 5 minutes 1 can mushrooms or ½ pound fresh mushrooms cut in pieces. Add 4 tablespoons flour and stir until well blended. Add 2 cups milk or cream, and 1 tablespoon butter. Cook until thick, stirring constantly. Season with salt, pepper and Worcestershire Sauce. Add 3 chopped, hard-cooked eggs and ½ cup stuffed olives chopped. Serve in patty shells or on slices of buttered toast. Garnish with slices of stuffed olive.

Boston Rolls—1 can baked beans; 1 cup grated cheese; 1 tablespoon chopped onion; 1 cup bread crumbs; ¼ cup milk.

Tomato Sauce—Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan, add 2 tablespoons flour and stir until well blended. Add ½ teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper, onion juice and 1 cup milk. Stir until thick, add ¼ cup Tomato Ketchup and pour over omelet after folding.

Easy Living

United States Attorney Sawyer Smith was talking in Covington about a bogus missionary.

"The man," he said, "held prayer meetings all over the country, and the money he took in for missions in Dahomey and Senegal enabled him to live like a prince for many years.

"It reminds me of the little girl who was asked:

"What does your father do for a living?"

"He takes up the collection in church," she answered."

STATE CAPITOL NEWS

Hiram L. Williamson
Illinois State Association

Awarding of contracts totaling $24,668 for improvements at the state fair grounds has been announced in the office of C. Herrick Hammond, state supervising architect. Cleaning up all construction work authorized by the Fifty-fifth general assembly. Hammond also announced awarding of contracts for repair and construction work at a dozen Illinois institutions. These contracts were let before the close of the fiscal year, June 30, the last day upon which appropriations made by the 1927 assembly could be used.

Figures compiled by Rodney Brandon, director of the department of public welfare, and presented to Gov. Louis L. Emmerson, show that on June 1 of this year the unfortunates being cared for by the state numbered 37,921 compared to 35,670 a year ago, an increase for the year of 2,251.

Caring for the insane and feeble-minded presents the greatest problem. This group on June 1 totaled 26,548 compared to 25,778 a year ago.

The increase in the penal institutions for the year was 1,047, the June 1 total being 7,945 compared to 6,898 the same day last year.

To care properly for this huge number of unfortunates, the state maintain 26 institutions while the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth are being constructed at Manteno and Dwight. The number of inmates at the various institutions follows:

The assignment of John Taylor, principal of the school for the deaf at Jacksonville, and Mrs. Taylor to the work of teaching illiterate prisoners in Joliet penitentiary is a step in the program of Rodney Brandon, director of the state department of public welfare, to teach all inmates of state penitentiaries to read and write. First termers and hardened criminals will be segregated under Director Brandon's plan.

Senator Guy L. Smith, Pana, chairman of the committee on constitutional amendments in the senate, was also chairman of the sub-committee that wrote the tax amendment to the constitution which was designed materially to reduce the taxes on farm land. The measure passed the senate but was lost in the house.

County boards may provide for lights on state aid roads and highway commissioners may light highways under their jurisdiction under the provisions of a bill introduced by Senator George M. Reynolds, Utica, which now bears Governor Emmerson's signature.

Governor Emmerson has appointed the nine members of the "Fort Dixon Memorial to Abraham Lincoln" commission to supervise the erection in Dixon of a suitable monument to mark the spot where Fort Dixon stood during the Black Hawk war, in which Abraham Lincoln served as a captain of the United States army.

The Santa Fe railroad inaugurated a 58-hour schedule between Chicago and Los Angeles with the installation of its new limited train, the "Chief." In addition to its fast time, the "Chief," will have a hook-up with a regular airplane service between New York and the Pacific coast.

House bill 773, introduced by Representative Elmer C. Wilson, Kankakee, providing for the application of federal regulation to aviation in Illinois, has received Governor Emmerson's signature.

The conservation bill introduced by Representative Martin B. Lohmann, Pekin, has secured the governor's signature, and under its provisions the proposal to issue $14,000,000 in bonds for fish and game preserves, will be submitted to the voters of Illinois. It embraces a state-wide system of conservation, forest preservation and public recreation ground.

Governor Emmerson signed Senator Victor Michel's bill permitting a deduction of good conduct time from minimum prison sentences.

Senator Norman G. Flagg, Moro, and Representative Frederick W. Renick, Buda, introduced the series of bills in the senate and house respectively amending the several election acts to provide that in each instance the officer responsible shall have at least 30 days in which to have ballots printed for the several primaries and elections, thus insuring sufficient time to allow clerks to print ballots and have them mailed out in time to comply with the absent voters' law.

Under these bills city primaries will be held on a Tuesday seven weeks prior to the April election, and caucuses for the nomination of candidates for city and township offices must be held at least 35 days prior to the date of election.

House bills 110 and 775, sponsored by Representative Michael Fahy, Toluca, provide that hereafter nomination of candidates for offices in cities and villages of less than 5,000 population shall be by caucus instead of by a primary election. These bills remove the objection of small cities and villages of the state that the primary was an unnecessary and expensive burden to them.

With 15 months of litigation behind them, attorneys for the state and the large motor fuel makers of the nation have declared a three months' truce before the next move in the legal battle over approximately $8,000,000 collected by the state under the invalidated gasoline tax. Quincy will probably be the scene of the next legal skirmish with the opening of the September term of United States District court there.

Approximately 400 new laws passed by the Fifty-sixth general assembly became effective at midnight, June 30. This includes all laws passed by the legislature and signed by the governor, except those specifying when they shall go into effect. A few carrying emergency clauses became law as soon as they were approved by the governor. A notable exception to the above is the 3-cent gasoline tax, which motorists will begin paying August 1.

Dr. W. A. Evans, eminent health writer and lecturer, addressed more than 200 public health and medical workers at a meeting in the Centennial building to mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the state diagnostic laboratory. Dr. Andy Hall, state health director, who presided, told how tests made in the laboratory have climbed from 171 during the first year to more than 250,000 annually now.

The maximum speed limit for passenger cars on the highways of Illinois has been raised from 35 miles per hour to 45 miles per hour, and that of trucks has been fixed at from 25 to 40 miles per hour, depending upon the power and weight of the truck. The measure, which has been signed by the governor, was introduced by Senator Henry M. Dunlap, Savoy. There has been some confusion in the minds of the public as to the speed limit defined by this statute. The above statement is correct.

Sixty-seven per cent of the area of Illinois is underlaid with coal of such variety as to fill every fuel need, Edward A. Weick, secretary and manager of the miners and operators Illinois Coal Sales association, said in the first issue of "Illinois Coal News" published to encourage home consumption of home-produced coal.

The house bill appropriating $9,304,78 to pay the attorney fees in several election contests in the lower branch of the assembly, was vetoed by the governor on the ground that the appropriation should have been made out of expense appropriation made by the Fifty-fifth general assembly.

Governor Louis L. Emmerson has announced the appointment of Phil S. Haner of Taylorville as superintendent of plant industry in the state department of agriculture, and that of Clyde I. Backus, of Chicago, as assistant director of registration and education.

Voting records of members of the Fifty-sixth general assembly will be published in the August issue of the Illinois Agricultural Association Record as a result of action taken by the association's executive committee in recent sessions.

Lieut. Gov. Fred E. Sterling has returned to Springfield to assume the duties of acting governor during the absence of Governor Emmerson from the state.

Having taken final action on the 453 bills passed by the last general assembly, Governor Emmerson departed to Ontario for a fishing trip. The governor confesses to a collection of 25 or 30 fishing rods and states that he is out to break his record of a 22-pound muskie.

The bill to amend the motor vehicle act so as to require nonresidents to obtain Illinois motor vehicle licenses, if from a state regulating motor vehicles owned by Illinois residents and operated in that state to carry that state's license, was signed by the governor. It was introduced in the house by Representative C. D. Franz, Freeport.

The first settlement for state taxes by a county treasurer was made by H. W. Blizard, seventy-six-year-old treasurer of Bond county.

EZEKIEL TEACHES PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

LESSON TEXT—Ezekiel 33:1-26.
GOLDEN TEXT—Every one of us shall give an account of himself to God.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Ezekiel's Message of Warning.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezekiel's Message of Warning.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Does God Take Note of My Life?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Individual Accountability to God.

I. Ezekiel's Responsibility (vv. 1-9).
The commission of the prophet is now renewed. Hitherto his utterances were mainly of a threatening character, having as their objective the turning of the people from their wicked ways. They refused to heed the prophet's words, the result of which was the falling of God's judgment upon them in their complete captivity and the destruction of Jerusalem. When it became clear that the people would not heed God's warnings through the prophet, the prophet was to be silent—dumb. This tragic situation was portrayed through the death of Ezekiel's wife. Awful as this blow was, he was to desist from weeping, showing that even natural sorrow was not to be expressed at the time of God's awful judgment.

After the renewal of the prophet's commission, his messages were mainly consolatory. His responsibility is set forth under the figure of a watchman. God gave him this position. Every minister and Sunday School teacher is a watchman. Indeed, upon every believer has been imposed certain responsibilities. Two things are required of a watchman.

1. To hear the word at God's mouth (v. 7).
The source of the message of every minister and Sunday school teacher is God's Holy Word. As the prophet did not originate his message but received it at God's mouth, so should it be with every minister.

2. To sound the warning (v. 7).
After hearing God's message he was to proclaim it to the people. The watchman's duty is both to hear and to speak. The people are to be warned of the impending danger. Failure to sound the alarm makes the watchman guilty of the blood of the sinner (v. 8). After the warning the sinner carries his own guilt (v. 9).

II. God's Attitude Toward the Sinner (vv. 10, 11).

God had declared in His word that unfaithfulness on the part of His people would cause them to "perish among the heathen," to "pine away in their iniquity" (Lev. 26:38, 39).
In view of this pronouncement, some were disposed to say that their case was hopeless. To meet this attitude of despair, the prophet assured them that God had no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that his sincere desire was for the wicked to turn from his way and live. Regardless of what their past had been He assured them that the future was bright, but God's command and plea is, "Turn ye from your evil ways, for why will ye die, O house of Israel?"

III. The Sinner's Personal Responsibility (vv. 12-20).

God has created the members of the race as volitional beings, possessing freedom of choice. They have moral discernment, enabling them to distinguish between right and wrong. The following principles govern the sinner and the watchman:

1. Past righteousness will not avail for present sins (v. 12).

When a righteous man turns to do iniquity, his past seeming righteousness will be of no avail.

2. Past sins do not make impossible present acceptance with God (vv. 12-14).

By virtue of the law of habit, every sinful act makes it harder for the sinner to repent, but God's mercy and enabling grace are such that if the sinner repents, God will restore.

3. Restitution required (vv. 15, 16).
The proof of penitence is that so far as possible the sinner make amends for wrongs done. There is no merit in the act of restitution, but such act helps the individual to overcome his besetting sin.

4. God's ways are equal (vv. 17, 20).

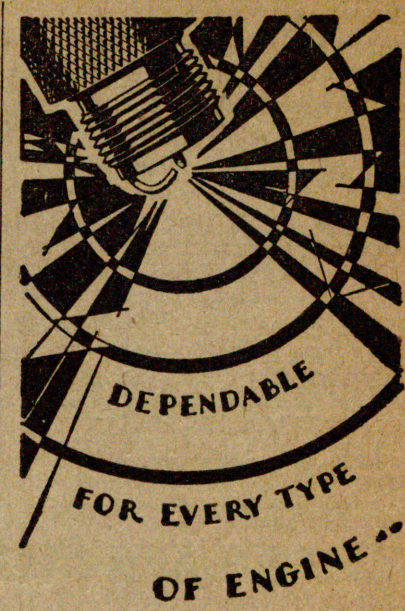

God holds man responsible for his own deeds. The child is not condemned because of the deeds of its father. This does not do away with the law of heredity. Regardless of what one's past life has been, God's grace in Jesus Christ blots out his record and he stands accepted in the Beloved.

On the Job

While Moses was caring for the sheep God's great commission came to him. If God has any great thing for us to do, we need not fear that He will miss us because we are busy with our common tasks.

Belief in Jesus Christ

The condition of salvation is that kind of belief in Jesus Christ which authenticates itself in repentance for the past and in amendments of life for the future.—L. L. Noble.

DR. CALDWELL'S THREE RULES

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not habit forming.

The Doctor never did approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Get a bottle today, at any drugstore and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open. For a free trial bottle, just write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois.

Printed by Request

In response to requests that the address of Mrs. Wallace B. Combs given at the dedication of the Tinley Park Legion Post colors on the 4th of July be published, we are taking pleasure in printing same herewith:

"It is an honor and a privilege to participate in this all important, this sacred ceremony the dedication of the colors which constitutes the establishment of a Post of the American Legion in Tinley Park. This patriotic order emanating from the World war will have much to do with bringing together those men who so bravely and nobly stood ready to face the cannon's roar, sacrificing their lives if called upon that America our homeland should ever be free. It will bring together also our town people in a sympathetic spirit of patriotism and friendliness. Patriotism comes nearer being a religion than anything I know of. My statement is based on the fact that recent statistics have shown since 1776 more people from foreign lands have sought and found protection and political and religious and economic and social freedom under the Stars and Stripes than ever found under any flag in the history of man, so let us rejoice on the 4th of July in the Celebration of Independence Day by pledging a closer allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

For its your Flag and my Flag,
And Oh! how much it holds;
Your land and my land
Secure within its folds.
Sun kissed, wind tossed,
The red, the white, the blue.
Your flag and my flag,
Red, white and blue."
